

Commercial Dispatch, Columbus, Miss., October 18, 1921

Woman's Club

The ladies of the Woman's Club are giving the Columbians and their visitors a warm welcome each day. The committee for tomorrow is as follows: Mrs. Hugh Hairston, the efficient chairman, has as assistants, Mrs. D. F. Robertson, Miss Anna Banks, Mrs. J. T. Fant, Mrs. S. L. Caine, Mrs. Bessie Daugherty, Mrs. Louise Landrum; Mrs. T. G. Owen, Mrs. T. J. Locke, Mrs. R. L. Malone, Robert Hardy, Mrs. J. W. Carr, Mrs. Henry Beard, Mrs. J. M. Kaufman, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Arthur Stansel, Mrs. T. H. Simon, Mrs. W. S. Turner, Miss Lena Vaughn, Miss Katherine Lindamood, Mrs. D. T. Gaston, Mrs. R. E. Johnston and Miss Vernon Waller.

Rain or Shine Club.

Mr. Arrington Johnson was host of the Rain or Shine Club at his home in the Prairie section last Saturday evening. For this occasion the Johnson home was radiant in an array of decorations appropriate for this season with the idea of Hallowe'en predominant. Masses of golden rod carried out artistically the color scheme of yellow. After the guests assembled, many games of bridge were enjoyed, and appropriate prizes were awarded. Mr. Tom Evans, who held the highest score among the gentlemen, was presented a deck of playing cards, and Mrs. Bailey Hardy, the highest winner, drew a beautiful box of candy as the reward for the ladies. Following these games, an elaborate refreshment course was served, consisting of salad and hot chocolate first and after this was removed charlotte and cake was served. Those young people who were invited to this delightful evening of pleasure were: Mr. Torn Evans, Miss Louise Evans, Miss Dorothy Hardy, Miss Martha Harris Frazee, Mr. John Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy, Mr. Bill Thurston, Miss Sarah Hardy, Mr. Edward Hardy and Mr. Tom S. Evans.

Guests of Mrs. McGahey.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McGahey will have as their guests a happy group of relatives who are expected at various times. Dr. Goodloe McGahey, accompanied by his wife and children, of Birmingham, will motor over in their car. Dr. McGahey is the brother of Mr. T. A. McGahey. Other Birmingham relatives who will also make the trip through the country are Mrs. W. C. Gewing and her attractive daughter, Miss Elizabeth Gewing, who is well remembered as a belle among the younger set during a visit with Miss Altee McGahey during vacation. Mrs. Robert Matthews and Mrs. A. W. Bradley, of Birmingham, will be among the guests also, and Mrs. Fred Bishop, sister of Mrs. McGahey, of Tuscaloosa, will join this happy throng.

Colonel Peyton home.

Since the arrival of Lt. Col. Peyton, who, accompanied by his charming wife, is the guest of his sister, Miss Mary Lou Peyton, there have been many social courtesies given in his honor. On Sunday evening and Monday afternoon many of the boyhood friends called for a pleasant informal hour with he and his wife, whom Columbians have learned to admire and love as if she were a native daughter of this city. At these time's Miss Mary Lou Peyton served delicious tea and wafers which were enjoyed by the many guests. Lt. Col. Peyton is now stationed at Camp Benning, near Columbus, Ga.. He is at the head of the Department of Military Training. This is the largest infantry camp in the South and at this place a wonderful work in the training of soldiers for this branch of the service is going on.